Martins Arrive More About Star's Color

Two more reports on the arrival of purple martins reached us today. They arrived for Jerry O'Neal, Wilson St., Southland Heights, Tuesday; and for Woodrow Baker, Hope Route Four, today.

Previously reported were the first martin arrivals for the entire area — for Mrs. Kenneth Cox and C. H. Wilson, both of Fulton, the same day, Feb. 13. My own martins take their sweet time getting here from South America. Last year they arrived March 15, and in 1965 on March 6. I checked my two boxes Tuesday night — but no dice.

Some time ago I reported that Berkey Technical Corp., New York, had ordered 5,000 reprints of our front page of Jan. 28, carrying the "Hog - Killing Time in Arkansas" four-color picture; and I received the following note this morning from Herbert A. Hollander, vice-president for sales:

"John Reidy of public relations has arranged for the national distribution of the Hope Star along with our covering letter to every newspaper in the country.

"We all join in thanking you for your outstanding cooperation."

But we would have been foolish not to have co-operated, considering the national publicity that our pioneering purchase of the Berkey color separating machine got for our newspaper, our town, and our state.

It was the second Berkey machine delivered to an American newspaper, and the first of the large 8x10-inch model. It attracted national attention in a feature article by Editor & Publisher magazine Dec. 31, was mentioned by the bulletins of the various newspaper and printing associations and trade journals, and drew letters to us from across the United States and Canada.

The latest notice is an article in the February issue of the Arkansas Publisher, Little Rock monthly organ of the Arkansas Press Association, headlined "Hope Star Hailed for New Four-Color Process."

But problems go along with every new process just as you associate fleas with a dog. I submitted our first two process color productions to an executive friend at Eastman Kodak Co., Rochester, N. Y., and got back a critical appraisal. That's O. K., what we wanted was the truth. He wrote:

"It appears to me that your separations are not in quite the best balance for your printing conditions but this is something I am sure you can work out as you go along."

What he is saying is that the printed pictures you raved about, and which we thought were pretty good, still are short of being perfect. You will recall that I told you something about this several weeks ago—the Berkey color machine is doing O. K., but we are having trouble controlling the "color mix" on the big press. We had difficulty with the yellow in printing our first color photograph Jan. 28, and to a lesser degree with the second on Feb. 15.

In actual color production we find that the big rotary offset press needs automatic ink agitators throughout, to keep the various inks constantly stirred and in proper balance or "mix". So we are ordering out this additional equipment at $4,000—for we are in the color-printing business in a big way and mean to make it our way of life.

At that we have come a long way. Here is the story of 13 months:

Dec. 29, 1965—Converted country daily from letterpress to modern offset in an entirely new plant.

June 15, 1966—Threw out the Linotypes and installed cold-type automatic typewriters and photographic headline compositors.

Jan. 28, 1967—Began publishing four-color photographs, the most exacting job in the graphic arts.

Insists WR Vetoed Bill Too Late

By GEORGE W. BARTSCH
Associated Press Writer
LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Was Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller's veto a day late, or will Arkansas municipalities be $15 million short?

The answer depends on whether Mrs. William Overton presented Mrs. William Mann with Senate Bill No. 65 on Feb. 20. And that question may have to be answered in court.

The bill, introduced by Sen. Morrell Gathright of Pine Bluff, would increase state turnback to cities from $3.7 million to $8.7 million during fiscal 1967-68 and to $13.7 million in 1968-69. Approved by the legislature, it was vetoed at 10:10 a.m. Monday.

The attorney general's office, basing its opinion on information supplied by Gathright, ruled Tuesday that the governor's veto was a day late.

"It is our opinion that . . . the bill became law because of the governor's failure to veto same within the five days allowed by the constitution," wrote Asst. Atty. Gen. Don Langston. "Further, it is our opinion that (it) should be delivered to the secretary of state's office for the assignment of an act number . . . as if the governor had signed the bill."

The opinion was based on two paragraphs of Gathright's letter to the attorney general: "Receipt (of the bill) was declined (Feb. 20) by an agent of the governor on the ground that the party did not have time to receive it."

"Delivery was accepted on Feb. 21, 1967," Rockefeller aide Tom Elisele said that the governor's office had not refused to accept the bill on Feb. 20 because it wasn't delivered until Feb. 21.

Since the constitutional says Sundays don't count, Rockefeller's five days weren't up until Monday and as far as the governor's office is concerned, the bill has been vetoed, Elisele said.

Mrs. Mann is Rockefeller's bill clerk. She served in the same capacity for former Gov.

New Red Block Being Formed by 3 Nations

By GENE KRAMER
WARSAW, Poland (AP)—Poland, Czechoslovakia and East Germany are forging a new Communist sub-bloc dedicated to perpetuating the division of Germany.

Poland and Czechoslovakia take the first step in Warsaw today with the signing of a 20-year renewal of their 1947 friendship and assistance treaty.

Closing the triangle, East German government and Communist party chief Walter Ulbricht will travel to Warsaw and Prague in mid-March to sign similar pacts with Poland and Czechoslovakia, informed Communist sources said.

They said the result will be an "iron triangle" to secure East Germany against West Germany's territorial aspirations and its claims to represent the whole German people.

Some Western diplomats call it a "paper triangle" of pledges stemming from Polish and East German anxiety about the responsiveness of their southern allies to overtures from the new West German government in Bonn.

Evidence is mounting that Czechoslovakia's two northern neighbors plus the Soviet Union have stiffened Prague's resistance to opening diplomatic relations with Bonn unless the West Germans renounce their claim to speak for all of Germany.

Diplomats report a sharp change in the Czechoslovak attitude following a strong Soviet statement on Germany Jan. 28 and Romania's opening of diplomatic relations with West Germany the next week.

Negroes at Nat'l Want Action

By BILL NEIKIRK
NATCHEZ, Miss. (AP)—Civil rights forces have made the gates of Armstrong Tire and Rubber Co. their main target for marches in pressing demands that the killer of Wharlest Jackson be sought out and arrested.

About 2,000 Negroes marched to the plant gates Tuesday night and threw their open briefs, only to close them at the insistence of their leaders.

"If necessary, we'll go through those gates like a flood of water," shouted Charles Evers, Mississippi field secretary for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

He said that might happen soon.

Jackson, former treasurer of the Natchez branch of the NAACP, was killed Monday night when a bomb exploded in his pickup truck as he was driving home from work. A plant employee for 12 years, he had been promoted to a job previously held by white men.

Evers said marches would be staged in the downtown area today when shifts change.

Natchez officials have offered a $25,000 reward for information leading to the arrest of those responsible for the fatal bombing. Armstrong officials offered another $10,000.

City police and the FBI searched the truck wreckage for clues but Police Chief J. T. Robinson said that nothing concrete had been found.

Clark Named by Johnson, Justice Quits

WASHINGTON (AP)—Nomination of Ramsey Clark as attorney general will give President Johnson a Supreme Court vacancy to fill — the result of a unique family double-play.

After Johnson promoted Clark to the vacancy Tuesday, Supreme Court Justice Tom C. Clark, the nominee's father, said he'll retire by midyear to avoid any conflict of interest.

Early Senate approval of the younger Clark's appointment is anticipated. Three senators heartily endorsed the nomination, with Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., calling it "one of the finest any president has ever made."

Justice Clark, 67, a 17-year veteran of the high court bench, said he'll review the court's docket "for any possible conflict of interests that arise during the remainder of the term" and then decide when to retire. The court term is scheduled to end in June.

The justice's retirement would give Johnson his second Supreme Court appointment. Ramsey Clark, 39, has been acting attorney general since last October when Nicholas Katzenbach resigned to become undersecretary of state.

House to Decide Fate of Powell

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF

WASHINGTON (AP)—THE House decides today whether to strip the last vestiges of congressional power from its most controversial figure, Adam Clayton Powell.

Members of the select committee which recommended the Harlem Democrat be seated with a stiff censure, a $40,000 assessment against his future pay and loss of all seniority expressed confidence the House will approve their proposal, which has support from nearly all Republican and Democratic leaders.

But vociferous members of both parties who want Powell removed from Congress promised to try to block the committee's proposal, and a tangled parliamentary path awaits the censure resolution before its likely approval later in the day.

Although many different possibilities exist, some form of ouster seems the most likely result if the committee's censure resolution fails. The debate could end in a couple of hours or drag on into the evening.

Powell wasn't expected to appear for the debate. At last word he was at his fishing retreat on the Bahamian Isle of Bimini, along with his secretary Corrine A. Huff.

The resolution also would remove Miss Huff, a former beauty contest winner, from a $19,000-a-year job on Powell's office payroll.

Barricades were made ready in the halls of Congress for the large crowd expected for the debate. Plans were made to clear the visitors' galleries every 10 minutes.

If Powell is censured, he would be the first House member so punished since Oct. 27, 1921, when the House censured the late Rep. Tom Blanton, D-Tex., for inserting salacious language into the Congressional Record.

Alternatives for House in Powell Case

WASHINGTON (AP)—Here are alternatives facing the House today in the Adam Clayton Powell case:

—Censure and other penalties. The select committee which investigated Powell recommended he be seated but that he receive a stiff censure, lose all seniority and be assessed $40,000.

—Censure only. Rep. John Conyers Jr., D-Mich., a member of the committee, hopes to amend the censure resolution to eliminate loss of seniority and the $40,000 levy.

—Expulsion. Rep. Claude Pepper, D-Fla., also a committee member, wants Powell expelled. This would probably require two separate votes: First, simple majority approval to seat Powell, then two-thirds majority approval to expel him.

—Exclusion. Some members favor keeping Powell out by voting not to give him the oath of office. This would require a majority. The same effect could come from defeat of all proposals since Powell is currently excluded from membership.

—Exclude with conditions. Rep. Samuel S. Stratton, D-N.Y., wants Powell kept out until he purges himself of contempt of a New York state court.

Purcell Enters Asphalt Case

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—U.S. District Judge Gordon Young has signed an order admitting Atty. Gen. Joe Purcell to the cases in which the state Highway Department is seeking to recover alleged overpayments for asphalt.

Purcell said his entry into the case was requested by Highway Director Ward Goodman and that he would be on a par with Shaver and Shaver, law firms representing the department.

Five firms have denied charges in the two suits filed against them.

Man Perishes When Fire Guts Home

By the time Hope firemen arrived at the scene the house was completely destroyed. Mr. Carr's body was found near the front of the house.

He had lived in this area for three years. He was a 32 degree Mason and member of the Wink, Texas Methodist Church.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Stella Carr, two daughters, Mrs. J. B. Waldrop of McLean, Texas and Mrs. Shirley Fay Hill of Spring Hill.

Cong Morale Low, Say Prisoners

PHUOC THANH, South Vietnam (AP)—A North Vietnamese lieutenant captured by Korean troops said today the failure of the lunar new year truce to produce peace negotiations has put "Viet Cong morale at an all-time low."

"Night and day the Viet Cong long for peace," said Lt. Truong Hiep, a platoon leader with the 3rd Company, 85th "Independence" Battalion, a Viet Cong main-force element. "They had high hopes for negotiation. Now they know they cannot win without direct help from Russia or Red China," he said.

The lieutenant was interviewed through an interpreter at the wire-enclosed stockade of the Korean Tiger Division here in the central highlands 290 miles northeast of Saigon. A Korean private captured him this week with a karate blow. The lieutenant was attempting to fire his German Walther pistol at a Korean patrol that surprised him as he was returning to duty from a Viet Cong hospital hidden in the mountains.

2 Amendments Bills Passed by House

By ROBERT L. SHAW
Associated Press Writer
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas House passed two proposed constitutional amendments Tuesday while the Senate defeated a measure changing the eligibility requirements for receiving unemployment compensation.
The House also defeated an attempt to appropriate up to $200 a month to each member of the General Assembly except the House speaker for "public relations" expenses. Last week the representatives defeated an attempt to pass a $50-a-month appropriation for the same purpose.
The House passed proposed constitutional amendments removing the age restrictions on the use of public funds for education, now 6 and 21 years old, to clear the way for public kindergarten and increasing from three to eight the number of constitutional amendments the legislature can submit in the general election.
The representatives passed 55-18 a bill by Sen. Guy Jones of Conway requiring Senate confirmation of all the governor's appointments to state boards and commissions. The House failed to pass the bill last week.
Meanwhile, the Senate defeated 13-15 a House bill requiring a worker leaving his job without good cause to have 30 days of paid work before becoming eligible for unemployment compensation. Presently a worker must have an eight-week waiting period. Sen. Oscar Alagood of Little Rock gave notice of reconsideration, however.
The House failed 37-34 to pass a proposed constitutional resolution by Rep. Joel Ledbetter of Little Rock permitting a county to vote on the county manager form of government, authorizing the legislature to set the number of justices of peace in a township and giving the judicial functions of county judges to chancery courts.
Rep. W. E. Rainwater of Fort Smith gave notice of reconsid-eration.
The kindergarten amendment is scheduled to be placed on the 1968 general election ballot.
The eight-amendments proposal must still be acted on by the Senate.
The constitutional amendments were selected by a joint committee of the legislature, which will meet again to select substitutes for those that fall in either house from a list narrowed to 12.
The House was urged by Rep.
G. W. Turner Jr. of Pine Bluff to vote down one of the chosen three because he believed better ones were still left, especially his proposal limiting the governor to two four-year terms and raising the salaries of constitutional officers and legislators.
Rep. Talbot Field of Hope sought unsuccessfully to amend the county reform measure to allow cities and counties to increase the tax levy on property in an election in which only property owners could vote.

The legislators argued at length over whether the public would approve them giving themselves the $200 public relations expenses. Rep. N. B.
Murphy of Hamburg proposed the expense account with an amendment to a bill appropriating $4,800 a year to six constitutional officers and the speaker of the House for public relations activities.
Minority Leader George Nowotny of Fort Smith said he thought the public was aware the legislators needed the money, but he urged the House to allow the voters to express their opinions on a constitutional amendment that would do the same thing. He said he would support Turner's proposal.
The amendment failed and then the House defeated another amendment by Rep. W. H.
Thompson of Marked Tree reducing the proposed appropriation for the constitutional officers and speaker, who now receive $1,800, from $4,800 to $3,000 a year.
Rep. Charles Davis of Springdale, who brought the bill up for reconsideration, then withdrew the entire measure.
Rep. John Sink of Newport brought up the Senate confirmation bill for reconsideration.
Rep. James Dawson of Conway said the bill had been called anti-administration, but that Jones had introduced identical measures in 1959 and 1965 during the administration of former Gov. Orval Faubus.
"If it is a slap at the governor, it was a slap two times before and it was a slap at a Democratic governor," Dawson said.
The Senate approved 26-2 a House bill requiring compulsory immunization against polio, diptheria, whooping cough, tetanus and measles with exemptions on religious grounds. The Senate had amended the bill earlier to grant religious exemptions for smallpox vaccinations, but receded from the amendment after the House refused to concur.
The House failed to pass a Senate bill designed to encourage driver education courses by giving school districts $20 for each student who completes such a course. There were objections to the $2 extra that would be imposed on city, county and state traffic fines to support the program.
In other action Tuesday, the Senate:
—Approved 19-7 a bill making it a felony punishable by 2-5 years imprisonment for leaving the scene of an accident involving bodily injury or $300 in property damage.
—Approved 27-0 a bill increasing maximum welfare grants to nursing home patients.
—Approved 25-2 a bill requiring county probate clerks to notify the state Drivers License Bureau when a person is declared incompetent.
—Approved 29-0 a bill that would eliminate third class circuits under a re-classification of judicial circuits designed to increase the salaries of prosecuting attorneys.
—Approved 28-0 a bill making it unlawful for an insurance company to permit its agents to charge different rates for the same class risk.

Tom Clark Considered a Conservative

WASHINGTON (AP) — Justice Tom C. Clark's retirement by midyear will remove from the Supreme Court a generally conservative jurist who sometimes swung to the liberal side — especially with his neckties.
Clark, 67, said Tuesday he will retire by the end of the current court term in order to avoid any conflict resulting from the appointment of his son, Ramsey, as attorney general.
They did have a humorous conflict once: When the elder Clark was attorney general, Ramsey left an unsigned typewritten note in a suggestion box that said: "You ought not to wear bow ties. Bow ties do not give you the dignity which is attached to the office of attorney general. And if you are going to wear bow ties, do not wear such loud ones."
But Tom Clark, in some ways a prototype Texan, standing over 6 feet tall, genial, talkative and with a Southern drawl, still likes bowties.
He is the fifth oldest of the nine judges, third in seniority and the last of President Harry S. Truman's three appointments remaining on the high court.
If Clark's successor turns out to be more conservative, the court could tilt in that direction;
if more liberal, the now-tenuous liberal majority would be reinforced.
The white-haired, affable
Clark took the judicial oath
Aug. 24, 1949, filling the vacancy caused by the death of liberal Justice Frank Murphy. He was then 49 and had been Truman's attorney general four years.
The Senate approved the nomination 73 to 8. The eight Republicans opposing Clark were led by Sen. Homer Ferguson, R-Mich., who termed the appointment "transparently political."
Three years later, however,
Clark voted against the president, lining up with a majority that struck down Truman's Korean wartime seizure of struck steel mills.
Court observers found it not easy to predict Clark's vote. But in the main, he tends to vote with the government.
An early important decision written by Clark for the court in May 1952 nullified a New York law under which censors had power to forbid showing of "sac-rilegious" movies.
The decision, the first to put movies under the protection of the First Amendment, was unanimous.
Yet, the same Clark spoke out in angry dissent last March when the court reversed a Massachusetts ban on the novel,
"Fanny Hill."
"The public should know the continuous flow of pornographic material reaching this court and the increasing problem states have in controlling it," he wrote.
Calling "Fanny Hill" typical, Clark said he had "stomached past cases for almost 10 years without much outcry. Though I am not known to be a purist — or a shrinking violet — this book is too much even for me."
Born in Dallas, Tex., Sept. 23, 1899, Clark was the first Texan appointed to the court.

Artillery, Planes Kill 150 V-cong

By ROBERT TUCKMAN
SAIGON (AP) — American planes and artillery killed more than 150 Viet Cong in War Zone
C after the Communists badly mauled a company of the U.S.
1st Infantry Division, the U.S. military command reported today.
The six-hour battle Tuesday was the biggest to date in the week-old Operation Junction City, a 45,000-man U.S. squeeze on the Communist jungle stronghold near the Cambodian border. The company of 178 American infantrymen suffered heavy casualties, meaning it is no longer an effective fighting force until it receives replacements.
North Vietnamese regulars operating just below the demilitarized zone fired off a tremendous mortar attack in an effort to knock out the long-range U.S. artillery guns which last week began shelling across the six-mile zone into North Vietnam.
U.S. headquarters said the North Vietnamese fired 475 mortar rounds against the 175mm guns in two shellings
Tuesday night. A U.S. spokesman said "miraculously" there was no damage to the big guns and only light casualties to American troops.
The 175mm guns, the biggest in Vietnam, are positioned two miles south of the demilitarized zone. The U.S. Command announced last Friday that the huge artillery pieces had begun firing at military targets in North Vietnam and in the demilitarized zone.
Also in the northern end of the country, U.S. Marines reported killing at least 26 enemy troops in several sharp fights below the demilitarized zone and along the South China seacoast.
More bad weather over North Vietnam Tuesday held American pilots to 56 strike missions which cost one plane.
An Air Force F105 Thunder-chief was shot down by North Vietnamese ground fire. The pilot, Capt. James S. Walbridge of Williamsport, Pa., bailed out and was rescued by a Jolly Green Giant helicopter from the jungles north of the Mu Gia Pass on the North Vietnamese border with Laos.
Walbridge was plucked from a tree in which he landed and had been hanging, suspended by his parachute harness, for an hour and a half.

Army Cooks Get Gourmet Lessons

WASHINGTON (AP) — Army cooks — who sometimes call coffee "battery acid" and oatmeal "flue" — are getting gourmet lessons from European chefs.

"We're trying to change the historical image," said M. Sgt. Carlton Brown of the Pentagon. "The amazing thing has been what an Army cook can do to make mother's basic cooking ingredients look like salvage from a garbage can."

"We're not particularly interested that they learn to cook filets. They don't serve them anyway," he said today. "But they do serve a type of New York cut beef and we want them to know how to make it palatable — less like something to sole shoes with."

The battle plan, thus far limited to the Washington area, calls for a group of Army cooks to study eight weeks with European chefs in major hotels.

Chefs, accustomed to four to eight year apprentice hips, are skeptical.

"Once I was hired by the Army to observe a kitchen," said chef Josef F. Schafers of Cologne, Germany. "After a week I reported in. It was fantastic. 'What are we doing wrong?' they asked. 'Wrong!' I said, 'What are you doing right?'"

"From a professional standpoint, it was disaster," Schafers recalls. "If all that had happened in my kitchen, I'd have blown it up."

But Schafers has hope. He has Spec. 5 Harold Root, 24, of Portland, Ore., and Spec. 4 Albert Johnson, 33, of Guttenberg, N.J., working in his Washington Hilton kitchens.

Root enlisted in the Army to be a mechanic. He was placed in supply school and flunked out. Then came cooking school. "In cooking school, you don't flunk out," he noted.

So far he has cut himself 12 times with knives, bought a gourmet encyclopedia and is on a diet.

Says Cadaver Transplants Possible

By FRANK CAREY
AP Science Writer

DURHAM, N.C. (AP) — A Duke University scientist said today that transplantation of hearts and other organs from the dead to the diseased living is achievable if enough national effort is put into the quest.

Indeed, said Dr. D. Bernard Amos, planning should begin now by federal, state and private agencies toward establishing a national network of organ-transplant centers — to be ready for possible breakthroughs in the technical field.

He said these breakthroughs could come soon.

As a starter, he urged that all states lacking it adopt enabling legislation "to permit a patient to bequeath an organ of his body for transplantation."

The physician told a science writers' seminar at Duke University Medical School that lack of such enabling legislation in a number of states is one of the biggest barriers to progress in the organ-transplant field.

He said in a prepared report that encouraging results already have been achieved by American and European scientists in transplanting kidneys from cadavers into living patients. And he declared that while the transplanting of various other organs — such as the heart, liver and lungs — presents even more formidable problems, these problems can be overcome.

The scientist said that other barriers that need to be overcome are the need for further research to improve methods of preserving organs, and the need for "adequate financing" of research in the field.

Dr. Amos declared that a start towards a national network of cadaver "organ banks" could be made in the kidney field.

He said otherwise incurable kidney disease patients could be sustained temporarily by artificial-kidney machines at special centers while suitable potential donors of kidneys were sought from among patients about to die from other causes in the same institutions.

He said this system could later serve as a source of other tissues or organs for other patients.

HELEN HELP US!

YOUTH ASKED FOR IT!

This column is for young people who have problems and need help. As with the rest of Helen Help US!, it welcomes laughs but won't dodge a serious question with a brush-off.

Send your teenage questions to Helen Help US!, this newspaper.

THE MAN'S PART

Dear Helen: Magazines often have long articles about what a woman should do to make her marriage work. Why in blazes aren't MEN given some pointers?

When my son marries, I hope he will not leave it all to his wife to see they "live happily ever afterwards."

Won't some of the men who read your column write in and tell us what they think MALES should do to create happy wives?

—READER

Dear Reader: Men are much better at telling WOMEN where they should shape up to create happy HUSBANDS.

But you've asked, so I'll pass the word along:

Dear Men Readers: Please make with the suggestions on how YOU can improve your marriages (other than cancel your wives' credit cards.)—H.

P. S. I don't exactly expect a deluge of mail.

Dear Helen: I'm getting a divorce and living at home with my parents. My mother never seemed this way before, but now she's forever telling me what to do, and even what to say. I was married over a year. How can people change like that?—H.S.

Dear H: Your mother didn't change—you just grew up. A divorced woman is no longer a little girl who minds her mother. Why not look for a job, and perhaps an apartment of your own?—H.

Dear Helen: I couldn't pass up "Tradition Lover's" letter without answering it. I wish she were mine! We have 17-year-old twins and they couldn't care less for traditions. We have a big house and a large dining room. I love to cook and have all the relatives here for holiday dinners, but our children would do anything to avoid spending time at home. They act as if they can't stand

It. I've about decided to see and move into a mobile home which I can maintain easily and be employed elsewhere.

See how different people are? Being born into a family doesn't necessarily make us compatible. Too bad we can't do some shifting around.—HEARTSICK

Dear Heartsick: A big house and big holiday family dinners don't always insure closeness between children and parents, not unless there was a great deal of laughter, understanding and appreciation all the way up the line.

Something went wrong here on both sides of the fence. Instead of abdicating, dig down deep and try to find out how and why it happened. Perhaps it's STILL not too late for compatibility, if you'll stop laying all the blame on the twins.—H.

Dear Helen: My husband works nights and two nights a week he comes home late. When I ask where he was, he says he had a couple of beers, but his breath doesn't smell like beer.

He told me lots of girls go out with foremen they think can help them get a better job. My husband is a foreman. Helen, this is only my suspicions, but what do you think?—UPSET

Dear Upset: I think if your husband had hankie-pankie in mind he'd gargle with beer to make his story sound true. And he'd clam up about the eager girls. Trust him!—H.

This column is dedicated to family living, so if you're having kid trouble or just plain trouble, let Helen help YOU. She will also welcome your own amusing experiences. Address Helen Bottel in care of Hope Star.

LET'S TALK ABOUT MOVIES

By VELDA SEAMANS

We're still trying to get the front of our theatre put back in order after the truck liked the looks of our program so well it drove right into our lobby.

As you read this I'll be to the big Show a Rama in Kansas City, where we'll get to meet Debbie Reynolds and other big stars—tell you about it when I get back tomorrow.

In the mean time, don't miss Vaughn's affair with danger in "Venetian Affair" which ends tonight at the Saenger. Then Thursday Saturday we'll have a great family show—first in color the greatest circus acts in the world thrill you in "Rings Around The Earth" which really are different on our big screen. Also for action, "The Trampoliers" with Joseph Cotton, Jim Mitchum and Gordon Scott. It's a big Western in color.

Sunday — you'll get a lot of thrills, and a few laughs too out of "The Liquidator" in color. This one is okay for the kids too, with Jill St. John and a great performance by Akim Tamiroff. This one's got a new twist—the story of a killer so chicken hearted he hires another assassin to do his work.

Some outstanding shows on the way this month — "Alfie"—which should win the Academy Award — "Texas Across The River"—Tennessee Williams this "Property is Condemned"—and the presentation of "Madame Butterfly"—a truly unusual event.

So Let's go to the movies—and have fun at the Saenger.

Can't Count Duke Out of Tourney

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Don't count Duke out of the NCAA post-season tournament for the national collegiate basketball championship.

The Blue Devils from Durham, N.C., are on the way back after being virtually counted out in the wake of their two December trouncings by the top-ranked UCLA Bruins and their supersophomore, Lew Alcindor.

Led by Bob Verga's 39 points, Coach Vic Bubas' boys crushed Wake Forest 113-71 Tuesday night for their fourth in a row and 11th victory in their last 12 starts.

Ahead is a Saturday afternoon game with nationally third-ranked North Carolina and then next week's Atlantic Coast Conference championship tournament for an NCAA berth.

Verga scored 15 field goals on 20 shots and converted nine of 10 free throws as the Blue Devils upped their season record to 16-6. It was the highest point total ever for a visiting player on the Wake Forest court.

The Blue Devils reached the semifinals of the 1966 national tournament before losing to Kentucky at College Park, Md. They finished in third place by beating Utah.

Elvin Hayes of Houston and Jim Walker of Providence, named to the first team All-America by The Associated Press before game time, shared the scoring headlines with Verga.

Hayes scored 41 points for the seventh-ranked Houston team to lead the Cougars in a 106-64 home court rout of New Orleans Loyola.

Walker tallied 38 points to pace Providence to a 68-67 squeaker over the visiting DePaul Blue Demons. Two free throws by Walker in the last 33 seconds provided the winning margin.

The 10th-ranked Boston College Eagles, the only other team in the AP Top Ten to see action, similarly pulled out an 80-76 home court victory over Canisius on successful free throws in the closing seconds.

Jack Kvanec converted twice from the foul line to break a 76-76 tie with 51 seconds left. Four seconds later Doug Hice sank two more free throws for the final points.

Walt Tiberti, with 23 points, and Ron Kozilek with 20 combined for 43 points to lead Northwestern to a 91-82 victory over Wisconsin at Evanston and keep the Wildcats one game back of first-place Indiana in the torrid Big Ten scramble.

Nebraska also kept its Big Eight alive with an 80-73 road victory over Missouri behind Stuart Lantz's 25 points. Ron Coleman got 30 for the losers.

Greenbrier to Defend B Title

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Defending champion Greenbrier battles Turrell at 6 p.m. in a first round game and Taylor takes on Palestine at 9:30 p.m. in a quarterfinal match today in the Class B senior boys state basketball tournament.

In another opening round battle, Alpena met Kingsland at 2 p.m.

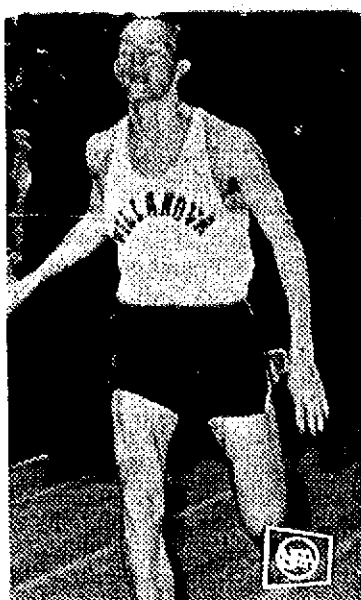

Greenbrier, ranked fifth in The Associated Press high school poll, has won two straight state crowns and enters tonight's battle with a 43-2 record.

In Tuesday's games Oil Trough defeated Willmot 62-57, Bradley beat Yellville 73-55 and Weiner pounded Fountain Hill 85-42.

Weiner was never in trouble in disposing of Fountain Hill as it built a 42-21 victory lead en route to its 32nd win in 38 games. Phil Hesse had 38 points for Weiner and Johnny Jeffers 12 for Fountain Hill.

Donnie Branscum scored 25 points for Oil Trough, won 38-3, and Eddie Gardner had 15 for Willmot.

John Knott's 20 points effort paved the way for Bradley in its triumph over Yellville. Mickey Huskey had 15 for the losers.

RYUN'S RIVAL, maybe, is Dave Patrick of Villanova, who recorded the fastest mile of the indoor season in New York recently with a 3:59.3 effort. Patrick is considered to be the only runner in the country who can give world record holder Jim Ryun a battle.

Texas Tech Makes Hogs a Victim

LUBBOCK, Tex. (AP) — Texas Tech led all the way Tuesday night in stopping Arkansas 73-59 in a Southwest Conference basketball game.

The victory left Tech at 8-15 for the year and 6-7 in the SWC while Arkansas fell to 6-16 overall and 4-9 in the conference.

Vernon Paul led Tech with 19 points while Billy Tapp and Dave Olsen hit 16 apiece.

Wally Freeman paced the Porks with 19 while Tommy Rowland added 17. Benton Cone added 11 for the Razorbacks.

Doral Course Challenge to Golfers

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Golfers who prefer the challenge of a long, tough course will find Doral to their liking — 7,002 yards of agony and hazards that have made the course The Blue Monster in golf lexicon.

When a choice field of pros tees off Thursday in the $100,000 tourney, it'll be strictly man versus par on the palm-fringed but also water-trapped layout.

In the six-year history of the tournament, winners who banked the $20,000 prize have always broken par — two-under for an average. But this year the monster may look tougher to the field that includes Arnold Palmer, the only PGA two-tourney winner this year, Jack Nicklaus, and defending champion Phil Rodgers.

During a rereasurement of the course for rating, par was reduced on the 10th hole from 5 to 4 for the maximum-permitted 470 yards.

As in most tourneys, Palmer and Nicklaus, who have never conquered the par-71 Doral, are considered strong bidders. Billy Casper, two-time Doral winner, is on a tour of the Orient.

"I'm playing well," says Rodgers, freckled ex-Marine who edged Jay Dolan and Kermit Zarley by a stroke last year. "If my putter works, I should do all right again."

Banks Owns Title of an Executive

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz. (AP) — Ernie Banks, the lifeline of the Chicago Cubs since he came up in 1953, now owns his first executive title.

The 36-year-old Banks, awaiting the start of his 14th full season with the Cubs, has been named a player-coach.

"Ernie will be a great asset and invaluable addition to our coaching staff," manager Leo Durocher said.

Asked if the coaching role may mean the end of Banks' playing career, Durocher said: "Absolutely not. I said before spring training that I was going to give the kid (John Boccabella) a long look at first base. This will enable Ernie to take his time getting in shape and then we will decide who is going to play first base."

"Only then will we know whether Boccabella ran Banks off first, or Banks ran Boccabella out of the job. They are the only candidates."

Bobcats Beat Hogs in Overtime

By LARRY DON WRIGHT
Star Sports Writer

Hope's Larry East grabbed a crucial rebound with only 11 seconds showing on the clock and laid the ball back up for the deciding points that gave the Bobcats a 92-90 overtime victory over the Razorbacks of Texarkana last night in Jones Field House.

The Cats stole the ball from the Texarkana team a total of four times during the last minute and 35 seconds as they came from 14 points behind in the final three minutes of regulation play.

It was both a very exciting and dramatic ending to the Bobcats home court season as it was their last game of the year in Jones Field House. Although the Cats have lost only one of 12 basketball games at home this season, the Texarkana win certainly has to rate among the most thrilling.

Balanced scoring, a lightning-quick fast break, and their persistent full court press were all important factors for the Bobcats in the way the game went. All five of Hope's starters tallied in double figures, three of them in the 20's, as the Cats hit a season high scoring mark.

The Bobcats found out early that if they were going to play ball with the Hogs, they were going to have to set their own fast pace. The first time the Bobcats brought the ball down and set up, they met a stingy Texarkana zone defense that wouldn't yield a point.

To avoid facing this problem the Cats began to make it a point to be the first ones down the court in an effort to get their shots off before the Hogs could set up their defense. In other words fast break, and that's just what they did.

The Cats never let up in keeping the game at a rapid pace, as they complemented the fast break with a full court press. But the Razorbacks kept things moving too as they threw in their own fast break.

The game was moving so fast that after only one quarter of play with the score in Hope's favor, 25-19, there was already talk of a 100-point game. However, this speculation was justified since by halftime the score was still pointing in that direction with the Cats commanding a 50-43 margin of difference. By beautiful ball handling the Bobcat fast break dominated the first half even though the 7-point halftime deficit was the greatest Hope enjoyed.

The Razorbacks hit the floor hot for the resumption of the game following intermission to outscore the Cats 21-9 through the first five minutes of play in the third quarter. This gave the visitors from Texarkana a 6-point advantage which they carried into the final period, 67-61.

The first five minutes of the fourth quarter were trying for the Bobcats as the deadly shooting accuracy of the Hogs appeared to be an insurmountable obstacle, especially since the Cats couldn't seem to "buy a basket."

With just under three minutes left in the game and the Hogs out in front by the convincing lead of 84-70, it looked almost hopeless for Hope. But that's when things started happening. In those final three minutes of regulation play Hope outscored the visitors, 16-2.

In the first 30 seconds of those come-from-behind moments Hope narrowed the gap by 5 points to 84-75. Danny Griffiths of Hope went to the foul line with a one-attempt. He made the first and Stan Parris got the rebound of the second shot and put the ball back up bringing the score to within 6, 84-78, with 1:35 remaining.

Parris then stole a Razorback pass at midcourt and raced in for a layup making it 84-80 as Texarkana called a timeout. When the Hogs threw the ball in Parris was there again. Swiping the ball he tossed it to teammate Stan Reyenga who laid it up for 2 more crucial points. With 1:10 left the score read 84-82.

Texarkana finally added a point to their total on a free throw with 55 seconds left and got the ball again on the rebound of another shot. But once again 6-foot-4 senior Stan Parris fouled up the Hogs plans as he stole the ball for the third time within a minute and a half and drove in for a Hope score. This brought the difference to 85-84 with the Hogs still ahead.

But not for long as East intercepted a Razorback pass and scored for the Cats again to put them in the lead 86-85 with 28 seconds left. Texarkana's Roberts made one of two free throws in the waning seconds however to send the game into a three-minute overtime period.

for the first two minutes of the extra session to bring the score to 90-90. Hope froze the ball for the final minute, stalling for one shot. With less than 15 seconds to go Danny Griffiths made the play for the basket, missing a lay up. East took the rebound and put in back up for the winning points.

Despite the third quarter scoring drought which hurt their average, the Bobcats hit on 47 percent of their shots from the field throughout the contest. Parris led all scorers with 23, followed by Luther Shaw with 21, and Griffiths with 20. Other Hope players scoring were East with 14, Reyenga with 13, and Dwight Galloway with 1. Mike Lach led Texarkana with 19 points.

The victory was additionally impressive when it is considered that the Razorbacks are a AAA team while the Bobcats play in Class AA, which usually makes quite a bit of difference.

The B-team game which preceded the senior battle was equally as close with the final score of 66-61 in favor of Texarkana being decided in an overtime period as well.

Terry Hairr led Hope with 18 points followed by John Henley with 16, and Ricky Putman with 13. Terry Turner had 6, while Montie Garner and Donnie Middlebrooks added 4 each.

NBA Players Threaten to Boycott

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — A threat of a players' boycott of the upcoming National Basketball Association playoffs loomed today in an atmosphere of confusion.

A retroactive pension plan is at the heart of the controversy. The players say they have discussed this matter with the league; the league says no.

The player representatives of the league's 10 teams announced at a meeting here Tuesday that they would stage a sit-down strike if their demands aren't met by the time the playoffs begin in three weeks.

"The major part of our differences with the owners is that the pension program they offer is far short," said Lawrence Fieischer, the players' attorney. "We received what seems to be their final offer last Friday, and it was rejected unanimously here by the player representatives."

NBA President Walter Kennedy countered with a news conference at halftime of the first game of a doubleheader at Madison Square Garden.

Kennedy said he first knew of the players' association's announcement when he received a telegram at 3:35 p.m., stating: "Player association at a meeting today, voted unanimously to turn down proposals of Board of Governors in reply to our request, (signed) Oscar Robertson."

He also said that he had held a series of meetings last week with Fieischer and that a retroactive pension plan was not discussed. In fact, he said, the players had never made a request for such a plan known to the league.

Wilt Breaks Another Cage Record

Ho hum. Wilt Chamberlain has broken another record.

Big Wilt made the first four shots he took Tuesday night in Philadelphia's 127-107 victory over Cincinnati at Syracuse, N.Y., giving him a National Basketball Association record of 35 straight field goals.

The old record was 31 straight, set earlier this year by Chamberlain.

The record before that was 19 straight, held by Chamberlain. Besides hitting on 11 of 14 field goal attempts and scoring 28 points, Chamberlain also picked up nine assists and grabbed 36 rebounds against the Royals. Cincinnati was led by Oscar Robertson with 24 points.

The other two games on the schedule were played as a doubleheader in New York.

A field goal by Jerry West and a fumbled pass by Detroit's Dave DeBusschere gave the Los Angeles Lakers a 119-117 victory over the Pistons in the first game, and Willis Reeds field goal nailed down a 127-123 victory for New York over San Francisco in the second.

West, who scored 34 points, broke a 117-117 tie with 37 seconds remaining by hitting a jump shot. Then with six seconds to go, DeBusschere, Detroit's player-coach, took an inbound pass and fumbled the ball right back out of bounds.

Baylor added 24 points for Los Angeles. Dave Bing and Eddie Miles scored 22 each and DeBusschere 21 for the Pistons.

Reed's basket with 27 seconds remaining put New York ahead 125-121 and ruined a 17-point, fourth quarter performance by San Francisco's Rick Barry.

Barry finished with 36 points, Reed scored 24 for New York, and Dick Van Arsdale added 23, Walt Bellamy 22 and Cazzie Russell 20.

Burke Named New Coach at Camden

CAMDEN, Ark. (AP) — The Camden School Board Tuesday named George A. Burke, 28, of Norphet to succeed Wayne Taylor as head coach and athletic director at Camden High School.

Supt. Wiley J. Elliott said Burke was among 30 who applied for the job vacated by Taylor's resignation.

Burke has been coach at Norphet for four years. His football teams there amassed a 33-8 record. His 1966 team was undefeated and ranked No. 1 among Class B teams in the state.

Burke is a graduate of Arkansas A&M College.

BASEBALL PREVIEW

St. Louis Cardinals

By SANDY PADWE
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

PITCHING—Count on Bob Gibson (21-12) for another 20-game season. Count on Larry Jaster (11-5) to keep beating the Dodgers. He did it five times last season. Count on Al Jackson (13-15) to be inconsistent. Stop counting. Start questioning. Can Joe Hoerner (5-1, 1.54) be as effective in relief again? Can rookie Danny Jaster emulate his brother? Can Ray Washburn (11-9) be more productive? Can Hal Woodeshick (2-1, 1.93) be as good as Hoerner again? Can Nelson Briles (4-15, but 3.21) reverse his record? Have faith. RATING—B.

INFIELD—Orlando Cepeda's comeback was more than successful (.301, 20 HR, 73 RBI). He'll be on first. Julian Javier, better than his .228 average, on second, with Dal Maxvill (.244) at short. Vastly improved Mike Shannon (.288) moves from outfield to third base in major spring experiment. RATING—B.

OUTFIELD—In a minority statement, Roger Maris will benefit from change. He was a problem with Yankees. If Cards can reach him, his bat could bring a pennant to St. Louis. With speedy Lou Brock (.285, 74 stolen bases), Curt Flood (.267), Cards have one of baseball's best outfields. Offensively and defensively. RATING—A.

CATCHING—Tim McCarver had another outstanding year in '66 (.274, 12 HR, 68 RBI). Played in 150 games. That didn't give Pat Corrales much of a chance. And now Cards have American League vet John Romano. RATING—A.

BENCH—Plenty of talent. Romano adds righthanded power. Tito Francona the lefty. Jerry Buchek, Phil Gagliano fine infield spares. Alex Johnson, Ted Savage, Bob Tolson the outfield subs. Johnson has lots of potential. RATING—B.

SUMMARY—Need another strong, consistent starter. Club could win it, especially if Maris forgets his last few years in New York. Fast, good defense. The longest choice. PREDICTION—A very close 2ND.

In action Tuesday night, Harding beat Arkansas College 73-65 at Pine Bluff, John Brown stopped Ozarks 75-71 at Harrison, Tech beat Hendrix 70-66 at Clinton and A&M defeated Little Rock University 69-65 at El Dorado.

The four winners will move into the quarterfinal round at Pine Bluff. The tournament will resume Thursday with two games each night through Saturday and the championship game Monday.

Bill Haynes tallied 21 points and Gerald Fredricks 18 as JBU clipped Ozarks. Phil Easley paced the Mountaineers with 19.

A&M got an 18-point performance from Kelton Busby in slipping past LRU. Mike Green paced LRU with 18.

Bob McKeel's 27 points paved the way for Harding, Jim Canada paced Arkansas College with 18.

Paul Brown sank 26 points, 20 in the first half, and led Tech to its triumph. Jimmy Clouette of Hendrix took scoring honors with 27 points.

Flamingo Stakes Field Is Now 11

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — At least one supplementary nomination was expected today to bring the field for Friday's Flamingo Stakes to 11 and make the closing feature at Hialeah Park worth $142,600.

Trainer Jerry Smith confirmed Tuesday that Holiday Stable will pay the $5,000 fee to make Ask The Fare eligible for the first major stakes for 3-year-olds in the East.

It will cost another $1,000 for Ask The Fare and other entries to go into the starting gate for the 1 1/8 mile race.

Trainer Hirsch Jacobs' pair of Reflected Glory and Reason to Hall is the 2-1 favorite.

Reflected Glory won last Wednesday's Everglades Stakes at the same distance. Robert Ussery, leading rider at Hialeah, will be on Reason To Hall and Jorge Velasquez on Reflected Glory.

First baseman Orlando Cepeda hit .373 in day games for the St. Louis Cardinals last season but only .258 at night.

Los Angeles Dodgers pitchers turned in 20 shutouts in 52 complete games last year and had a team earned run average of 2.62.

Alcindor Cage Player of Year

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Lew Alcindor, UCLA's supersophomore, was named today to the college basketball Player of the Year by The Associated Press.

The agile, 7-foot-1 1/2 giant spread-eagled the field in the separate balloting that accompanied the voting for the 1967 All-America team which was announced Tuesday.

Alcindor, a native New Yorker who has lived up to all the rosy predictions made when he was still in high school, received 215 of 290 votes cast. Far behind in second place was Jim Walker of Providence with 49.

"Alcindor, who else?" was the comment of many voters.

Westley Unseld of Louisville's Missouri Valley Conference champions, was third with eight votes. Clem Haskins of Western Kentucky, Ron Widby of Tennessee and Bob Lloyd of Rutgers tied for fourth with four votes each.

Bob Verga of Duke, Elbridge Webb of Tulsa, Mel Daniels of New Mexico, and Larry Miller of North Carolina, Don May of Dayton, Sam Williams of Iowa received one vote each.

Alcindor dominated even more the voting for the All-America by 308 sports writers and broadcasters, 18 of whom did not participate in the separate balloting for player of the year.

Big Lew received 306 first team votes in the A-A voting for a total of 1,330 points on the basis of five for a first and two for a second team nod. He did not receive any second team votes which meant he was ignored completely by just two voters.

Selected on the first team with Alcindor were Walker, Unseld, Haskins and Elvin Hayes, the Big E of Houston, who did not receive any vote for player of the year.

Verga, Widby, Miller and semifinals today when its meets Lloyd were named to the second Green Forest at 8 p.m. in a team along with Louie Dangler of Kentucky, who slipped from the 1966 first team.

Daniels was chosen on the second team with Butch Beard of Louisville, Sonny Dove of St. Smith St. Anne's at 3:30.

In Tuesday's action, defending champion Whitehall beat McGehee 70-51, Brinkley defeated Charleston 70-55, and Mena beat Mulberry 60-50.

Whitehall, holding a 30-3 record and the No. 6 ranking in The Associated Press Arkansas high school poll, rode the efforts of a trio of stars to an easy conquest. Larry Grisham led the way with 20 points, Loy Gardner 19 and Rick Mobley 17.

Mike Jones led McGehee with 14 points. McGehee finished its season with a 20-4 record.

Gus Rusher pushed through 32 points, including 21 in the second half as Brinkley downed Charleston. Fred Schaffer's 23 points paced the losers.

Terry Allen tallied 19 points and Kenneth Gillingham 16 for Mena while Ronnie Benham had 11 for Mulberry.

Cynthia and Ronald Kauffman of Seattle, Wash., were in third place in the pairs competition going into today's decisive free skating. They had 97.9 points, better than the 96.8 for the West German duo of Margot Glockshuber and Wolfgang Danne but still trailed the Germans in the intricate scoring system.

The husband-wife team of Ludmilla Belousova and Oleg Protopopov of Russia, the aging defending champions, whirled through driving rain and squalls in the opening compulsory competition on an open-air rink Tuesday to take the lead with 102.2 points

2 Men May Replace Mr. Koufax

VERO BEACH, Fla., (AP)—How do you replace Sandy Koufax? Simple. Replace him with two men. And hope. That's the Los Angeles Dodgers' plan for 1967. "We know you can't replace Koufax," Dodger pitching coach Harold (Lefty) Phillips said Tuesday, "but you have to go on. Last year, we carried nine pitchers. This year, we'll carry at least 10. "If we had to open the season tomorrow, Bob Miller (4-2 in 1966) and Joe Mosler (2-4) would be our fourth and fifth starters. Both can start and do major league jobs." The Dodgers will miss more than Koufax' 27 victories. The great left-hander, who retired last winter because of his arthritic pitching elbow, completed 27 of his 41 starting assignments. Sandy had more complete games than the rest of the staff combined. The Washington Senators were shut out 20 times last year.

Track Meets Are Merged

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Two major track meets, the Los Angeles Coliseum Relays and the Compton Invitational, have merged and will be run at night June 2 in Memorial Coliseum. The merger, for one year only, was announced Tuesday.

INSIST W. R. (From Page 1)

Orval Faubus during the three previous legislative sessions since 1961. Sometime after 5 p.m. Feb. 20, she and Rockefeller aide Marion Burton were in Burton's office preparing bills that the governor had to sign before leaving for an appointment.

Mrs. Overton entered the governor's outer office and stood there about 10 minutes. When Burton noticed her, he motioned her inside his office.

Each agrees that this is what happened up to that point. "When I looked up and saw Mrs. Overton, I said, 'I'm real busy at the moment,'" Mrs. Mann told a reporter. "I don't remember anything else I might have said."

Burton said Mrs. Mann apparently recognized her and knew she had a bill for her.

"She said something about being busy at the moment, but that she would be glad to take care of it if she would wait a while," he said. "She suggested that they could do it the next morning if she would prefer."

"She said she was busy and couldn't go back to her office to give me a receipt for the bill," said Mrs. Overton.

The three agreed that after Mrs. Mann's remarks, Mrs. Overton left the office without having said anything to either Burton or Mrs. Mann.

Mrs. Mann said that Mrs. Overton frequently brought down things (when she was busy) and that on those occasions, Mrs. Overton would simply come back later with them. She said this had become a matter of practice.

Mrs. Overton, acting on the advice of Sen. Q. Byrum Hurst of Hot Springs and Senate Secretary Lee Reaves, refused to make any other statements. Hurst and Reaves said she was upset because of the fear that she had done something wrong and that it might have to be settled in court. Hurst helped her formulate her one statement.

The question to be decided in court, if it goes that far, is what the constitution means by the word "present" when it speaks of presenting a bill to the governor.

A joint rule adopted by the legislature early in this session may have a bearing on that. The rule provides that "should the governor or his representative refuse to accept delivery, the bill shall be delivered to the appropriate sergeant-at-arms who shall deliver same either to the governor or any employee of the governor's office."

If Senate Bill No. 65 was declined, the Senate didn't follow its own rule.

Frank Howard Isn't Easy to Change

POMPANO BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Frank Howard isn't one to change easily, but the huge change some things," said Howard. Washington Senators' outfielder said.

Howard, 30, has been described as having great potential since he broke in with the Los Angeles Dodgers in 1958. But he has rarely performed up to that potential.

Last year, Howard led the Senators in hitting at .278, home runs with 18 and runs batted in with 71.

The Senators, however, were not pleased with any of those figures. Howard, at 6-7 and 260 pounds, is supposed to be Washington's power hitter and over-all big gun.

"I can show you my statistics," said General Manager George Selkirk, "the men that he left on base in scoring position, the runners he failed to advance and the few times he batted in the winning or tying run."

After taking a slight cut in salary to an approximate $39,000, Howard said he would experiment with a new batting stance this season.

It was no secret that Manager Gil Hodges has urged Howard to change his batting stance.

"I've had some wonderful coaching in my career, with both the Dodgers and Senators. I don't pretend to know it all," Howard said.

Hodges recalled that Howard attempted the change late last season. He spread his feet and held the bat still. The result was two line drives that were caught.

"The next day he went back to his old way and hit a home run, and that was all for the experiment," Hodges said. "But I think that was the last homer he hit all season."

"I'll listen, and if their way is better, I'll do all I can to follow instructions. I know I need to change some things," said Howard.

"But no matter what anybody tells you, when you're standing over that plate with a bat in your hand and that guy is 60 feet away throwing that ball at you, that's you up there, and all the advice is not going to help. It's between you and the pitcher," Howard concluded.

Al Kaline has hit 279 home runs for the Detroit Tigers. He needs 28 next season to beat Hank Greenberg's club record of 306.

Amateur Is Winner at Manila

MANILA (AP) — Hsu Sheng-San cost the pros a $10,000 first place prize by becoming the second straight amateur to win the Philippine Open Golf Tournament Sunday with a 283 as he came from four strokes back on the final round.

Billy Casper, the U.S. Open champion and a pre-tournament favorite, finished sixth at 289 after falling out of contention Saturday when he shot four-over-par 76.

Filipino pro Celestino Tugot, who finished second a stroke back, missed a chance for the top money when he missed a 15-foot putt on the final hole at the Mack Wack Golf and Country Club.

Through the Loophole

No doubt about it: the case was a shocker. A city alderman had been caught taking a bribe. But when he was brought to trial, it turned out that there was a loophole in the state's criminal code. By mistake, the code failed to make this particular action a crime.

So the alderman went free. As speedily as possible, the state legislature passed a new law closing the loophole. But as far as the alderman was concerned, it was too late. He had slipped safely through the law's clutches.

Does that make sense? Should the court let a man "get away with it" just because of a loophole in the law?

We have to start with one blunt fact: no law is perfect, with no loopholes at all. Human wisdom cannot foresee all the possible variations of conduct that may arise in the course of time.

Still, when a mistake in the law is so obvious, shouldn't the court stretch a point in the interest of justice? For example, in the alderman's case the court might have said:

"Loophole or no loophole, this fellow has done a wrong thing and must be punished."

The trouble is, a court simply does not have that power under our constitutional system. Judges may interpret laws, but not make them. In the words of the United States Supreme Court:

"It is the legislature, not the court, which is to define a crime and ordain its punishment."

To be sure, there is harm in letting a wrongdoer escape the punishment he deserves. But in the process, he gives society vital information—just as the escaping fish shows the fisherman where his net needs patching.

And closing even a single loophole in the law may have far-reaching consequences. Thus:

A flour company in New York once used a society girl's picture in its ads without asking for her permission. When she sued, the court could find nothing in the law that forbade such unwanted publicity. The girl's suit was dismissed.

In short order, the state legislature closed the loophole with a new law. And, as it turned out, this law was the cornerstone of one of the most significant legal developments of our times.

It was, in fact, the first "right of privacy" law in history.

THE DOCTOR SAYS
Grave Peril in Boxing: Permanent Brain Damage
By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Controversy about the advisability of permitting boxing, either professional or amateur, continues. Even the doctors take both sides of the argument. One point on which they all agree, however, is that boxing is a dangerous sport.

Although the number of serious injuries due to boxing each year is no greater than the number incurred in football, there are two important differences. Since many more persons take part in football the per capita injury rates are less. Furthermore, boxing is the only sport the sole object of which is to do physical harm to one's opponent.

Repeated blows on the head can produce permanent injury to the brain. The injury is doubly dangerous if the stricken boxer's head hits a ring post or the mat. A study was made of 10 British ex-boxers, all of whom were over 50 years of age. They each had a record of 200 or more bouts. All had retired from the ring 20 years before the study was made.

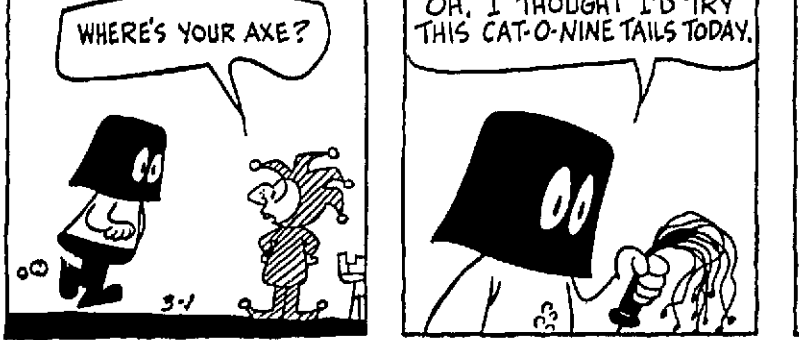

All 10 showed evidence of permanent brain damage which in some was classified as dementia. Eight had been unable to hold a job for several years. X rays of the head showed definite shrinking of the brain. This study also indicated that the boxers who were hardest to knock out had more brain damage than those who were knocked out in the early rounds and were thereby spared a lot of additional trauma.

Some blows to the head cause detachment of the retina and other eye injuries. Repeated blows to the kidneys or heart can also be damaging. As one defeated boxer aptly put it, "There must be a better way to earn a living."

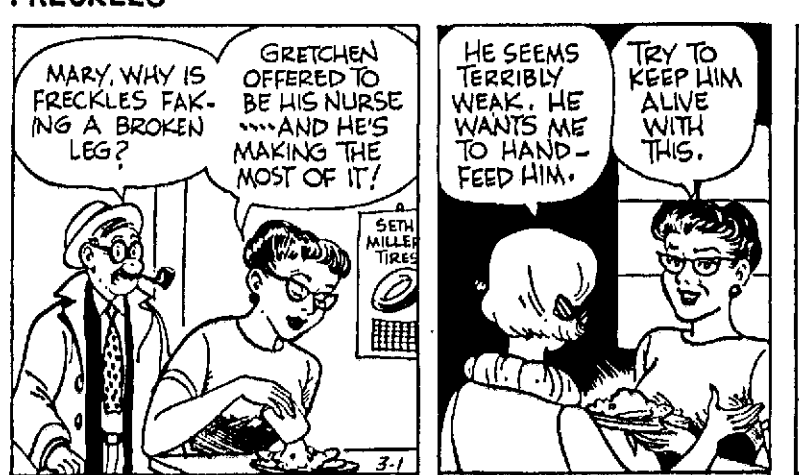

Q—Could Ethibral cause or aggravate glaucoma if taken regularly? What is colchicine used for? Could it help to relieve arthritis?

A—Ethibral, a triple barbiturate, is habit-forming but it would not cause or aggravate glaucoma. Colchicine is an effective remedy for gout.

Oswald: "South's jump to four spades was an overbid."
Jim: "Not much of an overbid, but certainly a trifle more than conservative."
Oswald: "This type of overbid frequently pays off. This one did after South gave the hand a very good play."
Jim: "A good play but a standard one for handling the situation when you miss the ace-king-jack and ten of trumps."
Oswald: "South won the diamond opening and led his deuce of spades. West played the ten and South played the six from dummy. East took his king—he had to, and all South had to do to make his contract was to lead a second spade toward dummy's queen later."
Jim: "This is the sort of play that is almost automatic for a really good player but is missed by many others."
Oswald: "It is a matter of percentage. South doesn't really care about which opponent holds which trumps if each one holds two. If they are going to break 3-1 there is no way to avoid losing three trump tricks if East holds all three. If West holds three declarer has already seen the ten on the table. If East's singleton is the jack the low play costs South his contract; if it is the ace or king the low play brings it home."
Jim: "There is even more going for South when he plays low in this situation. If West started with ace-king-ten there is an excellent chance that he would have opened a trump. There is also an excellent chance that he would have gone up with the king on South's actual play."
Oswald: "There sure is! It takes a real clairvoyant to be smart enough to duck with that holding."
